

1 | BEST HYDRATING MASK

Camille Rose Algae Renew Deep Conditioning Mask, $20, camillerose.com

“It’s packed with oils, emollients, and antioxidants—the ingredients are clean and provide a good balance between moisture and protein. Algae may have hair-growth-promoting properties, thanks to its omega-3s and omega-6s. Studies suggest that’s true if you eat it, but it can’t hurt to use it topically as well. Also, it’s silicone-free.” —Dr. Reid

2 | BEST SHAMPOO

Innersense Hydrating Cream Hairbath, $28, innersensebeauty.com

“Curly hair is more susceptible to static friction and frizz. This product contains sulfate-free cleansing fatty acids from natural coconut oil and shea butter, key ingredients that lessen static while moisturizing and help maintain the natural oil from the hair. It also is mild and nonirritating to the scalp and has a rich foam that makes hair cleansing more effective.” —Dr. Mitchell

3 | BEST LEAVE-IN CONDITIONER

Ouidad Moisture Lock Leave-In Conditioner, $26, ouidad.com

“To help seal in moisture, Ouidad’s leave-in incorporates prickly pear and green tea extract to help hydrate and smooth curls. The result is shiny, healthy hair that’s touchable and soft.” —Korab shine. It also acts as a heat and UV protectant.”

—Fitzsimons

5 | BEST HEAT PROTECTANT

Mizani Heat Screen Heat Protectant Spray, $24, sephora.com

“This heat protectant safeguards hair from any heat styling up to 450°F. The leave-in spray is lightweight, protects against heat damage, and adds a glossy shine.” —Korab

4 | BEST CURL DEFINER CREAM

NatureLab Tokyo Perfect Texture Curl Cream, $15, naturelab.com

“This new curl cream provides a touchable hold while providing definition, bounce, and frizz-free

